NDFU Restaurant Most Booked in DC

Both NDFU Restaurants make Top Ten Most Booked in DC

JAMESTOWN, N.D. — Founding Farmers is the most booked restaurant in Washington D.C., according to OpenTable Reservations D.C. Farmers & Fishers makes the list at number eight. OpenTable is a web site that allows users to make online reservations and review. Last month over 500,000 people used the web site to make reservations.

“The restaurants are beginning to see tremendous success. The key importance is that consumers truly value knowing where their food is produced, bridging the gap between producer and consumer,” said North Dakota Farmers Union President Robert Carlson. “NDFU is looking further at future plans with each restaurant, as well as expansion.”

Agraria, LLC is the parent company of both Founding Farmers and Farmers & Fishers. Farmers & Fishers opened in 2006 and Founding Farmers began business in 2008.
